Ross-on-Wye & District Civic Society

Registered with

John Kyrle "The Man of Ross" house

Ross-on-Wye is a historic market town in the heart of the Wye Valley, which is designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The major portion of the town has been designated a Conservation Area and it contains many listed buildings of historical importance. Public gardens and walks offer magnificent views of the River Wye and the surrounding countryside.

The Society's role is to promote knowledge of the historical context of Ross and the surrounding parishes and villages, whilst recognising that change and progress is essential for the growth of a vibrant community. The Society fulfils this role by holding regular meetings, producing publications, examining planning applications and monitoring footpaths and byways.

Historical papers, in the form of Pink Publications, are produced by the society which cover topics ranging from lime kilns to landscape history, from charity schools to Catholic martyrs and from saints to stained glass in and around Ross.

The Society welcomes both visitors and new members to meetings and events.

If you would like to join, please send this portion of the leaflet, with a cheque made payable to 'Ross-on-Wye Civic Society' for the appropriate amount, to:
